*NEW  U3A Events - Art Happenings

In the worlds of live performance, visual arts, festivals and community arts Melbourne has a lot going all of the time and, what's even better, many of these activities are free.

But, it's so much nicer to do these things with company!

So, what's on offer?

Each month I would like to offer up to ten members one art happening event. Each will be stimulating and social, low cost and accessible. We will often get there by PT and as many as possible will be during the day.

But, before we go on, please allow me to introduce myself: hello to fellow members, my name is Sarah, I live in Newport and I spend my time seeing, participating in or producing arts projects. I'm new to U3A joining in March 2019 in order to take part in Liz and Jan's lovely Book Club.

I am a joiner and a life-long volunteer - I love a creative group - and, while I enjoy receiving the wonderful opportunities on offer in a group, I like to get involved, help out and see what's needed too! And, as a bonus, I've always found this is a good way for me to meet people. In the August newsletter Phil wrote he was looking for new convenors to offer events, so I thought I would give it a go.

Please find details for the October and November events below.

These are a bit of a test taster. Let's see how we go. I think over time we will work out what events suit us and how we want to construct our outings. I've searched through heaps of events and sites and rejected many just because I wasn't available, so a co-co-ordinator to compile a calendar together might work very well. If you want to offer constructive feedback, suggest an event or just chat, please do get in touch by phone or email.

I hope to see you soon!

Sarah Berry

Thursday 17 October - : Art History Lecture

We will leave Williamstown train station at 6.00pm and return about 9.00pm.

We will visit Beer de Luxe, Federation Square for a quick drink before heading into the NGV for the lecture at 7.00pm. The lecture is "Sirens" and explores representations of destructive and seductive women in mythology.

Please click the link to book (free, but required) and for details of speakers.
